

Useful links

Energy Assistance

Report Card for Schools

[More House 4
Less](#)

Travels with Governor Ehrlich

[Maryland
Technology
Assistance Program](#)

Kid's Page

The Press Box

[Maryland
Emergency Management Agency](#)

Governor Ehrlich's Morning Update

Friday, September 29, 2006

The Governor's Schedule

12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.
luncheon

Remarks at Howard County Tourism Board

LOCATION: Turf Valley Resort and Conference Center

2700 Turf Valley Road
Ellicott City, MD

2:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Attend stoplight dedication with Lt. Governor
Michael Steele and Seat Pleasant Mayor Grant
LOCATION: Corner of Martin Luther King, Jr.,
Blvd. (Route 704) and Carrington Avenue
Seat Pleasant, MD

Today's Headlines

Electronic Voting Machines: Not Really a Cure to the Hanging Chad

In Maryland, where the recent primary election was marred by electronic voting problems, Gov. Robert Ehrlich is calling for return to old-fashioned paper ballots, and urging voters to vote absentee in the coming election.

SU looks to bring out vote

Lauren Walker, who is studying early childhood elementary education, said she hopes Gov. Robert Ehrlich will provide the resources that the autistic children she teaches need on the Eastern Shore. Ehrlich has been very supportive of education, she said.

Shire Pharmaceuticals opens technology center

"It's another arrow in my quiver," the governor said. "Whether I'm in my office in Annapolis or in a boardroom in Asia, when I'm sitting there trying to close a deal with a CEO or CFO looking to come to Maryland, I have a list of successful companies in Maryland, what they've done, their expansion plans and why they've expanded."

Yesterday from the State House

Photos -Governor Ehrlich with the Commission on Holocaust Studies

If you do not wish to be on this mailing list, please hit reply with "remove" in the subject line.

